And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days; Then heaven tries the earth if it be in tune, And over it softly her warm ear lays.

June, the month of perfect days—yes, but the poet when he composed those lines thought not of the crowded city, but of green fields and trees and flowers; of the fresh, pure breezes of the ocean and of unsullied nature. He thought not of the hot and dusty streets, but of a world of natural beauty. Away from the city the sentiment is true, not of the one month alone, but of all the summer months.

Why not get away from the hot city, if only for a brief interval. Try the inestimable pleasure of a trip to and make that day perfect, no matter when it may be. Delightful Surf Bathing, good Fishing, boating, Music, Dancing and a multitude of other pleasures both afloat and ashore.

Try it and see. You'll not be disappointed.
